

Archaeology

Answer the following questions in a Word document. For questions 1-5, I have given you the website where you can find the answer. For questions 6-10, you will need to find or come up with the answers on your own. When you are finished, print the document out. Be sure your name is on it. This assignment will be collected on Monday, September 26.

DO NOT COPY ANSWERS DIRECTLY FROM THE INTERNET YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO

1.) In at least three sentences, and in no more than five sentences, explain what archaeology is.

<http://www.digonsite.com/drdig/general/7.html>

2.) Explain the difference between archaeology and anthropology in at least two sentences.

<http://www.digonsite.com/drdig/general/6.html>

3.) Explain some things an archaeologist could learn from a dig in at least three sentences.

<http://www.digonsite.com/drdig/digging/2.html>

4.) Explain how archaeologists know that there are things in the ground just by seeing bumps on the ground in at least 3 sentences.

<http://www.digonsite.com/drdig/digging/12.html>

5.) Describe underwater archaeology, including at least three interesting facts about it, in at least four sentences.

<http://www.culture.fr/culture/archeosm/en/index.html>

6.) Find out what the following people's role would be at an archaeological dig site. Explain each of their roles in at least one sentence.

- Philologist, Metallurgist, Numismatist, Paleontologist, Epigraphist, Paleobotanist, Geologist.

7.) Find the names of at least three famous archaeologists. List their names, and explain in at least two sentences (for each) why they were important archaeologists.

8.) Find information about an archaeological site in Pennsylvania. Write at least three sentences about this site, including its location.

9.) In World History this year, we will talk about Early Man – people from the Paleolithic and Neolithic ages. Explain, in at least four sentences, how we are able to know so much about these people when they did not keep any written records.

10.) What would you enjoy and not enjoy about being an archaeologist? Write your response in at least four sentences.